

Gulf Atlantic Yacht Club, Inc.
2010 Annual “Shamrock” Regatta

Notice of Race

Saturday March 27th 2010

St John's River – Black Creek

Place: Black Creek Park – north of Green Cove Springs (west side of river)

Date: Saturday March 27th 2010

Management: This regatta will be managed by the Gulf Atlantic Yacht Club, Inc (GAYC) which is also the organizing authority.

Intent: It is the intent of GAYC for this regatta to be fun for all participants. It is also the intent of GAYC to encourage both “hard core” racers and “cruising racers” to attend. Courses will be designed with this in mind.

Registration: Separate Registration Form must be completed in full and delivered to Mary Bird 1040 NE 13th Street, Gainesville, Florida 32601 by March 24th. Late Registration will take place on site beginning at 9:30AM on race day. Early registration is encouraged (see Entry Fees Below)

Entry Fees: $30.00 if received by March 24th 2010 - $35.00 thereafter.

Classes: We will start the following classes:

Boats over 28 feet – racing (spinnakers allowed)

Boats over 28 feet – cruising (no spinnakers allowed)

Boats under 28 feet – racing (spinnakers allowed)

Boats under 28 feet – cruising (no spinnakers allowed)

Multi Hulls – if three or more are registered

Race Committee has the right to combine classes if necessary.

Eligibility: All boats shall have a current NE Florida (First Coast Sailing Association) PHRF rating. Ratings can be assigned to boats having no rating.

Sail Numbers: Boats with US Sailing numbers or unique Class numbers on their mainsail shall use those numbers. Boats without such numbers may at the discretion of the organizers be issued temporary numbers or other identifiers.

Races: There will be multiple races depending upon the weather. The Race Committee will determine the length and direction of the courses. Courses for racing and cruising boats may be of different lengths. One race per class will constitute a regatta.

Racing Rules: This regatta will be governed by the US Sailing Rules 2009-2012 its Prescriptions and the Sailing Instructions. Z Flag and Black Flag rules (30.2 and 30.3) are NOT in effect.

Safety: The Prescription that flotation devices must be worn at the start and finish is NOT in effect. Skippers/Owners shall make their own determination and conform with US Coast Guard regulations concerning Flotation and other required equipment. Skippers and crew alike are reminded of Racing Rules 1.1 (Helping Those In Danger) , 1.2 (Life Saving Equipment and Personal Buoyancy and 4.0 (Decision to Race)

Approximate Schedule: Skippers meeting 10:00 EDT - 1st warning signal 11:00 EDT Boats should be launched by the skippers meeting.

Sailing Instructions: Separate Sailing Instructions will be distributed at the Skippers Meeting.

Communication: All boats are required to have on board either a permanently mounted VHF or a hand held VHF. The Race Committee will make every effort to communicate instructions via Channel 68. Failure to do so will not constitute rights to protest or redress. Multi hulls are exempt from this requirement.

Social Events:

- (1) Depending upon weather (wind direction/strength etc) there may be a “raft up” for lunch between the first and second races. The Race Committee will make the final decision and communicate it on Channel 68 and verbally. This will be a BYO
- (2) GAYC will host a barbecue (hot dogs hamburgers, beer and soda etc) on the grounds of the Black Creek Park as soon as possible after the last race. There will be NO CHARGE for Competitors and Volunteers. Charge for guests and spectators will be $7.50

Trophies: There will be awards for the first three winners per class
