Good afternoon,

What a wonderful day of racing the kids had, yesterday. The winds started out light but built to a nice fresh breeze in the afternoon.

For our out of town guests. I give away my photos. The images on the web site are 1000x640. If you're interested in getting a print of one of the shots, just contact me. I'll send you the original resolution file, free of charge. These files are 6000x4000 and fully capable of being printed to 48x32 without even being considered an "enlargement." Unless you want the print to dominate the room, you might want to go a wee smaller. An 8x10 will cost about $8 at Walgreens, printed while you wait. A 20x30 which makes a nice print over the sofa, will run about $25 also at Walgreens. Though not all walgreens have the capability to print that large while you wait.

Highly recommend looking at these on a PC screen. The following instructions may or may not be valid if you're on a phone or pad.

To acquire a photo, get the name of the photo off the album page, the photo name is superimposed lower left in the photo, but only while looking at the main album page. Drop a line or call with the photo name and I'll send the original file. I recommend you email instead of calling. I am not in the habit of answering calls from numbers not on my contacts list. If you call, you'll have to leave a message so I will return your call. Everything else gets ignored. (bloody robo calls are out of control)

What a great day on the water. I hope everyone had as much fun as I did.

Sometimes we are lucky enough to know our lives have been changed, to discard the old and embrace the new and run headlong down an immutable course.
It happened to me... on that summer's day
when my eyes were opened to the sea.
